No more Scab in Sheep.

The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body of hers it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great in its result, is preferable to all invented still now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one article of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of $ 160, I will facilitate all sheep farmer to rear their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness to make known this remedy all before I can prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of one $ at 38 which I hold at every one's disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab:

SATURDAY, MAY 30 1868

VERAZZI—OSTATION.

Who does not remember the friend of Cuneo, the spothecast of Urquiza? For some time we have missed him from Buenos Aires, and lo! he turns up at Montevideo, painting the Rotunda. No one denies that he is a no ordinary artist, but, like our Absent Friend, vanity has almost turned his brain. The wealthy Governor of Entre Rios, thought 1,000 Doubloons rather a much for his portrait (Faith! the original is not worth half the sum), and the hero of Monte Caseros [illegible] has taken a novel mode to avenge himself. A warrior's vengeance lies in the sword, a lawyer's in his bill of costs, but the painter wields his brush and pallet with enduring venom. The story of Michael Angelo is familiar to all: he painted the Pope's Chamberlain in Hell, over the Sistine portico, and the Pope declared he could go no further than Purgatory, leaving the unhappy prelate a lay ward to future ages.

The municipality of Montevideo has, nevertheless, rescued Urquiza and the Argentine Republic, by offering part of the following inscription.

"Belisarzar Verazzi, fecit 1863.
"Native of Caprezzo,
"Alto Novara Italy."

This fresco was made merely for the cost of materials, the personal labor being given gratuitously for the church, in memory of the artist.

[The following was effaced]

"To the shame of the Argentine Republic, and misfortune of the Fine Arts, the painter suffered unheard of barbarities from the first Argentine President, the consequence of which have been fatal."

It may be well to remark that the cost of materials is set down at 100 silver dollars: we have seen many a fine painting for the money, including personal labor; but then the artist was not a Verazzi.

OUR LAND LAWS.

Possession, they say, is nine-tenths of the law; but in this country it would appear to be ten-tenths, so serious are the difficulties experienced in evicting squatters or tenants at will. So ineffectual and incomplete are the statutes on the subject, that we feel bound to call the attention of the Government to the matter, although we confess we have little hope of any immediate redress being effected.

The following facts may be interesting to a portion of our readers; we can vouch for the truth, as the case came under our own notice. A certain gentleman purchased an estancia about two years and a half ago; the land being Government property was paid for in the proper office, the right of emphyteusis, or, in plain English squatter's right, was agreed for, the sum specified duly paid, the key of the estancia house and the possession of the land duly and to all lie delivered up in the presence of witnesses, and a few occupants of some half dozen of miserable cabins having refused to leave until they found a place to go to, were permitted by the Juez de Paz to remain for a few days. Nearly two years have elapsed since then, and yet these squatters are still on the land, notwithstanding the repeated orders from the Juez de Primer Instancia. Notwithstanding the continued exertions of the country judge and alcaldes, these people are still on the land, with sheep, cattle and horses. Without a semblance of title, ora particle of right, they keep the property, to the direct injury of the foreigner who purchased the property.

It is a lamentable fact that in this country Ejectments are hardships, and evictions unknown: property loses half its value, owing to the imbecility of the judges, and the want of summary laws.

Hundreds of wealthy foreigners prefer to have their money at interest, than invest in real estate, simply owing to the troubles and inconveniences, in attending such property.

Some few years ago a foreigner bought a league of Government land, and deposited the purchase money in the Bank until the title deeds were made out. To the day he has not got possession, and the Bank and the lawyers are the gainers by the transaction.

A certain party arrived the other day with over a million currency, intending to invest in land, but finds that the Government prices is exorbitant, and secondly, such innumerable questions, etc, respecting every yard of camp in the country, that he has changed his mind and means to invest elsewhere.

Now, this is a positive loss to this province, not only of the million in question, but of many more millions which will follow in the same track.

We have not heard what has become of Dr Alsina's Code, but we hope that our Governor Saavedra will use his influence to have the laws respecting lands and their tenure simplified and the process of ejectment more summary.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Flores' invasion seems to cause little anxiety in the Oriental capital the Government and Chambers think of nothing but progress and new enterprises Sr. Villalba has laid a project before the Senate for establishing electric telegraphs throughout the Republic. M. Murray, contractor of the B. Ayres Northern railway is at present elected M.C. and intends carrying out a long projected line, one of which is, we believe, from the capital to Villa Union. The Land and Farming Company, undeterred by the prospects of civil war, we understand, making arrangements to commence on a large scale it is not clear whether they will purchase Baron Maua's estancia (said to have been sacked by Flores), which is valued at £150,000 sterling. There is every probability the Dried Beef Co. will be successful, as the late Dinner in Glasgow shews a favorable disposition to receive it in English soup kitchens.

The inquest on the late robbery of the French cotton operatives yielded 415 dols. Don Luis Ortiz has been named Criminal Judge instead of Dr. Pereira, and of 8 of the 10 prisoners was confined in Union for some 50 acts of robbery; they murdered one of their companions. There is no suspicion that he was an informer: the ring-leader is a youth named Pipo, 13 years of age.

The interdict has been lifted on the Theatres, which will open as usual on Sunday night. Sr. Verazzi is again making a noise, being employed as a scene painter to the Opera, which is a subject of dispute. The Chamners are busy with the new Patsandú bank. Madame D'Aubigny has become a municipal star since Arthur Napoleon's begin.

The captain of the "Ferdinand" relates having met pigeons at a distance of 200 miles, on the 24th ult. which he supposes to be a trace of the destructive "Alabama." Eight laborers have been fined for selling liquor to Indians.

D. Andres Pons, profe-sor of the University, has accused "El Pais" for charging him with having caused the death of one of his pupils by the infliction of a barbarous punishment. The 25th of May was kept a public festival. In the morning the band of Juby Dutton aged 18 years, native of O. Britain.

FLORES' CAMPAIGN.

The report, circulated by the Tribuna, of the capture of Paysandu, is premature: our correspondent expects it may soon take place. Dionisio Coho not has 200 men stationed near Mr Fair's estancia on the 7—y, and the Government officers report their district perfectly tranquil. The Brazilian war-steamer "Fluminense" went up to Yaguaron to protect the imperial frontier from outlaw bands. The Reforma still reports Flores beyond the frontier hewing that they are ignorant in Montevideo of the real state of affairs. The stories of wholesale desertion, from Medina's army are confirmed by 23 black fugitives arrived yesterday from Montevideo.

It is rumored that Urquiza intends allying with Pres. Berro. The certainty is, that we were mistaken in supposing that the 1st not is not yet played out, and those who anticipated the ex Gener-l to invade a peaceful neighboring State, may have severe heads before the curtain falls.

REMEMBER MAY 30TH 1844

This was a popular adage in Ireland for some years. It was the date of the unjust sentence which condemned O'Connell to fine and imprisonment. To our disgrace, they were Irishmen who tried him, and their names will descend to posterity with opprobrium, as synonyms of infamy. The British House of Lords had the justice to reverse so barbarous a sentence, and Lord Denman declared that trial by Jury, after this manner, was "a mockery, a delusion, and a snare." We quote from also of the Lords' orders were remarkable for calling forth an immense display of forensic talent. O'Connell was left to judgment in the Court Master of the Rolls, and his prison, was converted into the most brilliant and patriotic court in Europe.

EDITORS' TABLE.

The report about town respecting the fall of Paisandu, seems more than plausible, si-ce, by a private corre spondent, we learn that Flores, on the 26th, was in the immediate vicinity of Paisandu, with about 1200 men Six black men, deserters from Medina's army, arrived here on Thursday. The Colorados welcome them, and eagerly catch hold of their stories. We for our part dislike deserters of all class and shades, and regard with suspicion all statements emanating from such a source.

The National Government, we hear, is fitting out the Pampero, and there is talk of the Pavon being taken up also. Things look rather squally. It will require a steady hand to steer us through the difficulties which this Flores invasion has brought upon us.

The Ball at the Club del Plata was a brilliant affair, and the ladies in their magnificence of the ladies' dresses, attracted general attention. The President and his Ministers, Members of both houses, in fact the whole fashionable world of this city were there.

The new law respecting the Mole head custom-house either opened for operation on the 1st June; we regret it as a move in the right direction.

We question the discretion of our embryo colleague in publishing its programme in the columns of a journal the most unpopular among both French and English.

We perceive the arrival of 27,000 gallons of kerosene, which goes to prove with what facility a new trade is introduced amongst us; we regret, however, that it is not sufficient to start a new export than import trade, which fact speaks volumes in favor of the States of Uruguay, and yet on the short space of one year has been established a manufactory, turning trade, whilst we can only show about 400 lbs of cotton, as the grand result of all our efforts to create a spending power.

In Rio Janeiro, there is every probability of a political crisis, and a change of Ministers, a dissolution of the Chambers is hourly expected.

"Le Progres," the new French paper has published its programme; a paper of no pretensions, but filled with principles that nearly every foreign nationality has its organ.

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen."

We labored under the impression that the "Standard" was the only one published in this country, but, from it appears we were gro sly mistaken, and that, we have some half a-dozen colleagues, who have forgotten to exchange with us.

The "Nacion Argentina," very properly observes that in the principal cities of Europe, the papers are not of such dimensions as in Buenos Ayres. In Dublin, the daily Freeman which has over 60,000 subscribers, is only the size of the "Standard." We confess no surprise at the calls Victoria gentlemen, enlarging their paper and filling it with all sorts of news, but, we should by no means encourage the like mania in this city who would take the trouble to read such a paper through. The Editor have taken our hint about their packet reviews, and promise not packet, to devote half their paper to the subject. What a boon for Europe!

It is extraordinary that such a large paper should have such a limited number of Euro;ean readers, and prove the bad taste of the people in the Old World.

Yesterday we were visited by an estanciero from Rojas, who informed us that the crops in that direction are in splendid condition, and the sheep farmers going about.

Sr Cano, a wealthy capitalist, has a magnificent estancia in Rojas, he is extent, in this partido; his donations for the schools church, etc, in the town of Rojas have been most munificent. Sr Cano attributes her thanks for his noble exertions to advance the country. A few such men as Sr Cano would soon make the country districts different from what they are.

The French Packet will probably arrive to-morrow, her non-arrival has caused much anxiety to all parties: some think that she will bring us news of a rupture between England and America, which would be a terrible blow to disastrous a war and so suddenly take place.

We hear that the Tribuna people, are awfully busy at present, finding it very hard to fill up their enormous columns. In yesterday's edition, we perceive a few extracts of the Buenos Hous-wife, on the subject of black-wheat cakes. As there is no buckwheat in this country, our colleague's information is rather gratuitous

A CENTRAL AMERICAN WAR.

The quiet and prosperous little republic of San Salvador, which has been growing coffee, experimenting in cotton, and successfully minding its own business for some years past, to the content of its citizens and the admiration of mankind, has been roused from its repose by the uneasy ambition of its neighbor, the republic of Guatemala and real despotism of Guatemala.

Guatemala for a quarter of a century has been ruled by the aboriginal Indian General Carrera, a most interesting sketch of whose career and character was given to the world by the late Lieutenant Hodgson. The Guatemalans describe Carrera as "an armed Hottentot who can neither read nor write," and who exists only to rovish and lord it amongst all the territory of Central America. Guatemala has made him her perpetual President, with authority to name his successor at the expiry of his term, and it has, moreover, installed in his name, and the constitutionalists of the neighboring states look upon him as the propagandist of a rude but not unpicturesque despotism from the top of Chapultepec to the bottom of Carrera's onslaught upon that state. President Barrios, of San Salvador, called this whole body of Carrera enter San Salvador still-mulated with the promise of pillaging and sacking the chief towns of the land, with full license to appropriate whatever comes in their way, fruits of the earth or beasts of the field, merchandize or money. The Salvadorians seem to have rallied at the summons of their President with creditable zeal, and an official bulletin issued at San Salvador February 25 announces that a complete victory was gained at Costaquico on the previous day over the invading forces The Salvadorian President commanded in person. The fortification of Costaquico were attacked by the Guatemalians, says the bulletin, "with desperate and well-sustained courage, and after the most sanguinary battle ever fought in Central America," in which about 12,000 men engaged. the army of Carrera "was broken and put to flight, leaving the field covered with their dead and their arms" It is hardly probable that Carrera will abandon his enterprise after this check, were it even as decisive as these accounts would make it appear; and the beautiful regions of Central America seem destined to add another to the many bloody fields already read to us of in the dismal fruits of unbridled political passion overriding and making vain the most elaborate frames of constitutional government.

CONGRESS DEPUTIES.

The Chamber met yesterday; 37 members; Sor Urquiza chairman. The project for increasing the Argentine officials paid in paper money, was recommended by the committee: D. Pastor Obligado made some opposition on the plea that the proposed increase of 25 per, would be insufficient if gold rose to a higher premium. After a trifling debate the bill was passed unanimously.

M. Montelederca's bill, restricting the President's absence from the capital to 48 hours, was laid before the House. After the ridiculous upshot of D. Adolfo Alsina's vote of Censure, the discussion of the bill was resumed to get out of the difficulty; and declared his intention of abandoning it as a last case, hoping however, as he cast it on the vote, some Honorable member would take charge of the outcast.

Sr. Torrent felt it an indignity to Congress that a bill should go backwicking about, looking for some one to father it, like the deserted offspring of cruel parents. He proposed it should be sent to committee.

Some members of the committee thought they had already settled the matter, in throwing out Alsina's motion.

M.M. A barellos and Elizalde insisted on submitting it to committee. M. Rivera considered the law notes de Oca had abandoned the bill, and it required some name as guarantee.

Sor Cabral. I stand up for it.

The house then divided. For sending it to committee 19—against 18.

MISCELLANEA.

During the past week, in a village not 100 miles from Chascomus, a well-known manufacturer of "mountain dew," who appeared to labour under considerable dread of the ignominy of the Black Hole of Island Revenue, presented himself to a publican with a keg which had not paid the government duty, declaring it to be nothing more nefarious than would carry "two in one." A bargain was immediately made between the parties, the publican seizing gladly the opportunity of coming into possession of a drop of the "native," as it was the fair eve, and in order to make the bargain valid £1 of earnest to the smuggler. In the hours afterwards he of the tap thought it but right to test the contents of the keg, and his surprise may be in no easily imagined (than described when he found nothing in it but pure spring water. Of course the publican cannot seek redress in a court of justice, nor recover his money from the astute dealer, as he has himself committed an illegal act.

LOCAL EVENTS.

GENERAL LASHERAS.—Inspector General of army has received a personal visit from the President of Chile asking him to receive his resignation and continue some time longer in office.

General Fotheringham is an Argentine officer of great reputation and has been Governor of Buenos Ayres. Lasheras is said to be exile in Chile and has never returned back again to his country.

THE NAVY.—Is going to be increased by the steamer Pampero and aptain Carreras is appointed to command. No motives are alleged for this increase of Government force.

VICE CONSUL CABAL.—Urquiza's partner in Paysandú is making himself remarkable for his active participation in the affairs of Black Giant. The National Government should order him to be more discreet in his proceedings.

LAW UP PENSION.—The Government is preparing the law of military pensions of the Nation, which will shortly be submitted to Congress; it will alleviate the distress of many poor families.

EDUCATION.—The National Government may take a good example from that of Paraguay in establishing a number of young men to be educated in Europe. We want Argentine Civil and Military Engineers, geologists, mineralogists, surveyors, sculptors, &c, and in general all branches of a scientific education. Above all however we want naval officers, and the Argentine Confederation has sufficient influence to place a dozen on board the British and other navies for instruction, and it would not cost much.

By sending fifty young men every year we should have within a comparatively brief period a large number of scientific natives, who could render incalculable service to the country.

The Argentine republic except Buenos Aires is yet in a primitive state: there are no roads, nor canals: the land is not surveyed nor cleared of forests, there are no bridges and in consequence only any of the conveniences of civilized life.

Respecting the young men who ought to be sent we think that this honor should be awarded to merit only; say by sending the best pupil of each school, otherwise we may have to regret the Spanish proverb "Un bual y salvio peteon."

Stop Press !

We have seen a letter from an influential trustworthy party in Portalegre, in which he states, that Flores has made a treaty with Brazil: on condition of the Brazilians supporting him, he will permit the Brazilian forcnter to be extended to the Arapey which is 14 leagues from Salto. The son of Canavaro with a force of two thirds Brazilians has joined Flores. The authorities of Brazil not attempting to interfere.

We leave the public to judge of the patriotism of Flores and of Orientales who join him.

Sr. RIESTRA'S FUNERAL.

Yesterday the religious ceremonies for the repose of the soul of Mr. Alvaro de la Riestra, took place in the College church.

The attendance was the largest we ever witnessed; nearly all the influential merchants, and capitalists of the city were there. We consider, that this great mark of respect was paid not only to the memory of the deceased gentleman who occupied so distinguished a position amongst us, as one of the oldest Spanish merchants of this city, but also, to the acknowledgments of his removing Don Don Norberto de la Riestra, our late Finance Minister.
